Join the campaign

to keep our lands clean

GIVE YOUR LAND A HAND
KEEP WASHINGTON COUNTY CLEAN

To commemorate Patriot Day (9/11), Washington County is organizing three different public lands clean-up projects, and we would love to have the public's patriotic support by lending your hands to the public lands that we all love. Send questions to info@GiveYourLandAHand.com

» Cottonwood Road Clean Up

September 8, 2018
9am – 11 am
Meet at the bottom of Cotton-wood Springs Rd.
Look for roadside parking within the first ¼ mile.

» Mill Creek Clean Up

September 8, 2018
9am – 12pm
Meet at the top of Main Street in Washington City.
Look for parking where the asphalt turns to dirt.

» LaVerkin Overlook Clean Up

September 8, 2018
9am – 12pm
Meet at the turnoff to the LaVerkin Overlook Road on Highway 9
From the intersection of State Street and Highway 9 in LaVerkin, drive approximately 2.5 miles east, toward Zion, and look for parking at the turnout.

Participating Groups for this clean-up include:

- » Washington County
- » Republic Services
- » Red Cliffs Desert Reserve
- » BLM St. George Field Office

WASHINGTON COUNTY
UTAH

Learn more at www.GiveYourLandAHand.com